New guidelines for optional classes

Students enrolled in Primary 2 will now be able to select 1 optional style to their schedules if they have attended 1 full year of ballet prior and with teacher approval.

Students enrolled in Primary 3 or Homeschool may add 2 optional styles if they have completed 1 full year of ballet prior and teacher approval.

Students enrolled in Beginning, Intermediate or Advanced may add any style they choose but must attend all their assigned ballet classes.

New Observing guideline for Cecchetti Syllabus classes

Observation will be closed all the time. It will be open by invitation only. This is to allow the teachers and students to be fully dedicated to their training and learning proper ballet class etiquette.

Dress Code Change

Creative Movement dancers are still the same, Light Pink Leotard skirt attached or separate.

All other dancers will need a black leotard NO SKIRT, class color skirts will be ordered when dancers are assigned a class group.

All female dancers will need pale pink DANCE TIGHTS, pink leather or canvas ballet shoes.

Tap dancers will be given a recommended shoe list from instructor.

Tap and Jazz dancers will need spandex black shorts .

All dancers with hair long enough needs to be up in a ballet bun, as close to the head as possible.

Things to Remember

1. Always wear a cover up over dance clothes when arriving and leaving studio.
2. Arrive early enough to be prepared when class is scheduled to start. That means 10 – 15 minutes before class time.
3. Dancers need hair pulled away from face and in a bun close to head.
4. Bring a water bottle to class, NO sugar/energy drinks from Dutch Bros.
5. Any correction given in class is to make you a better dancer.
6. Let the studio know as soon as possible if you are going to be missing class.
